

ABOVE $10,000,000 REVENUE EXPECTED

Estimated Returns From the Income Tax for the Current Calendar Year.

EXCEEDS BY $20,000,000
RECEIPTS OF LAST YEAR

Prosperous Conditions Among Industries and Increase of General Business Noted in Review.

One hundred million dollars is the latest estimate of revenues from the income tax for the current calendar year.
Last year's collections amounted to $8,000,000.

The prospect of this big revenue is regarded by the administration as an indication of the unexampled prosperity that has swept over the United States.
The original estimate, made when the annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury was in preparation, was that $8,000,000 would be collected during the calendar year 1915.

The present estimate is based on telegraphic advices from collectors of internal revenue, after figuring up the returns of taxpayers made, as required by law, on or before March 1. It includes what has already been collected, $19,484,000, on account of taxes due last year, but collected since the beginning of the new year. Similar collections of overdue taxes, collected after the date when due, were included in the receipts of $8,000,000 last year.

Explains Large Increase.

"Only by the use of superlatives can the existing commercial and industrial conditions be adequately described," says Dun's Weekly Review. This comment on the situation in the United States gives some explanation of the large increase over the original estimate of the prospective income tax.

It seems fair to consider that a readjustment of conditions has occurred.
Immediately following the beginning of the war in Europe there was a general prostration of all industries. Soon those industries which could serve the needs of the belligerent nations began to find themselves overwhelmed with orders that meant a great extension of capacity and great earnings.

This prosperity of certain industries resulted in a general revival of prosperity to dormant lines, the general trade of the country, which then went up and down and up and down in the earnings from abroad.

Benefit to Wage Earners.

Wage-earners in busy factories found themselves with cash to buy necessaries and luxuries. The general revival, it is claimed, extending first to one and then to another business activity, has resulted in a general revival of all industries. The general

Business Is Suspended in South Bend During Services—Indiana Society Pays Tribute.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 18.—The funeral of United States Senator Benjamin F. Shively was held this afternoon from the family residence in this city, the services, which were private, being of a very simple nature. Rev.
Charles A. Lippincott, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated and music was furnished by a choir of male voices. Following the brief service, the body was escorted to Riverview cemetery by the congressional and state delegations, where it was placed in a receiving vault.

Business of City Suspended.

The Shively home was small and it was necessary for many out-of-town friends to remain outside of the house during the service. Business here was suspended during the hours of the funeral.

Throughout the morning hundreds of the senator's friends passed by the funeral home, which was surrounded by a wealth of floral tributes, including remembrances of President Wilson, Vice President Marshall, Gov. Ralston, United States senators, representatives in Congress, and many organizations and countless friends.

Immediately after the funeral the congressional and state delegations departed for their homes.

Indiana Society Pays Tribute.

Tribute of respect to the memory of the late Senator Benjamin F. Shively was paid by the Indiana Society of Washington at a meeting held in the Old Masonic Temple, 14th and F streets, last night.

Judge James A. Parker offered a resolution, which read, in part:

"We recognize in the death of Senator Shively at this particular juncture, when our foreign and diplomatic relations are daily developing situations fraught with danger, that the government has lost a valued and able counselor of rare and unusual value."

The resolution was unanimously passed by a standing vote, following which the society adjourned as a further mark of respect.

Judge Peelle Voices Praise.

Judge Stanton J. Peelle, presiding, paid heartfelt tribute to the late senator at the National Press Club. Mr. Peelle delighted the Hoosiers with "wappny" numbers. Prof. Walter T. Holt, director, and K. T. Cowing, Mont. Milford, Ray B.
Morgan, David Lawrence, Alfred Pittman, Jefferson Jones and Robert Heintz comprised the club.

Mr. Cowing contributed violin music.
Miss M. C. Peelle was in charge of the evening's program.

PRETTY COSTLY BARGAIN.

NEW YORK, March 18.—One can

Benny Kauf reached with the Giants.
But one thing is certain: Benny has received his promised bonus of $10,000 cash down and a raise in salary sufficient to cover the sum he claimed from Harry Sinclair. If this be true Benny is a pretty costly bargain for the Giants, granting that $15,000 was paid for his services to Sinclair in the beginning.

WEST POINTERS GATHER; THREE CITIES IN TOUCH

Graduates of Academy in New York, Chicago and San Francisco Joined by Telephone.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Graduates of the United States Military Academy at West Point to the number of 225 dined together here tonight. Similar dinners were in progress at the same time at Chicago and San Francisco, and all three banquet rooms were connected by telephone. Among the guests here were Maj. Gen. G. W. Goethals and his son, Lieut. G. R. Goethals. There were no speeches.

Addresses at Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—Seventy graduates of the United States Military Academy at West Point assembled at their annual banquet in the Palace Hotel here tonight, exchanged greetings over long-distance telephone with a similar gathering at the Hotel Astor in New York, and listened to addresses by leading West Pointers after toasts had been drunk to absent alumni, who had been called for service in Mexico or on the border.

Gen. George A. Woodruff, '71, was toastmaster, and among the speakers were Gen. H. E. Young, '81; Gen. W. B.
Livermore, '85; Capt. H. H. Payson,
'88; and Maj. Gen. J. Franklin Bell,

COLLUSUS RAIDERS PUT OUTSIDE LAW; ONE DEAD

Oregon Decree Gives Right to Seize and Kill Villa Men, If Necessary.

MEXICO CITY, Mex., March 18.—The minister of war, Gen. Obregon, issued a decree today declaring all participants in the Columbus raid outside the law. The decree gives the right to any citizen to apprehend and kill, if necessary, the followers of Villa who crossed the American frontier.

The first victim of this decree was summarily executed today in the city of Hermosillo, near which place he was captured by men who denounced him as one of the raiding party. The execution was carried out on direct orders of the minister of war, who personally sent instructions to Gen. P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, to that effect.

Suspect to Be Tried.

Another suspect, Carlos Reza, a former reactionary leader, was taken into custody, but was not executed, owing to lack of evidence. He will be taken to Saltillo, where he will be tried by court-martial.

Reza's friends declare that the efforts to run down the bandits will increase with time and that the government must wait until all those guilty of the crime against the United States have been run to earth. Gen. Pes-quiera, assistant minister of war, has been in conference with his chief on the subject.

GERMANY TO PROBE TUBANTIA SINKING

Effort Will Be Made to Determine Cause of Dutch Ship's Destruction.

LONDON, March 18.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says the German government has ordered the admiralty to make an investigation whether a German submarine torpedoed the Tubantia.

Assertions having been made from German sources that the Tubantia was sunk by a British torpedo, the admiralty announced today that no British submarines were nearby when the Dutch liner went down.

Sinking Called Inhuman.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, March 18.—The Argentine agent of the Hollandsche Lloyd, owners of the Tubantia, said today he was able to confirm the reports that the Tubantia was torpedoed.
The sinking of this vessel has made a deep impression here. La Nacion says:

"It is impossible to admit the right to interrupt navigation between neutral nations and to attack a steamship engaged in passenger service between Rotterdam and Buenos Aires. Our conscience does not approve such an inhuman method of warfare, and we cannot remain indifferent when confronted with acts of war which prejudice us and offend the nation in this manner."

The article concludes with a demand that the government take measures to investigate the question thus presented.

STREET CAR MEN MEET
TO NOMINATE OFFICERS

Samuel Gompers Urges Members to Remain Loyal to Their Union.

Six hundred employees of the street car line of the city assembled last night at midnight in National Rifles Army Hall to nominate officers for the lately formed union, which will be known as Local No. 685, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America.

Resin Orr, national organizer, administered the oath of allegiance to the union and the men, standing with right hand raised, took the obligation.

Samuel L. Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, delivered the principal address. He urged the men to stick to the union and not to let their enthusiasm wane. He urged them to be straightforward with the union and their employers and to nominate men who could be depended upon to look out for their rights. He also urged that the men who were nominated for office not to accept preferred positions in the employ of the companies.

William McK. Clayton told the men that the city was proud of the fact that they were the first to organize. He urged them to stick to the union and not to let their enthusiasm wane. He urged them to be straightforward with the union and their employers and to nominate men who could be depended upon to look out for their rights. He also urged that the men who were nominated for office not to accept preferred positions in the employ of the companies.

Up to 3 o'clock this morning the nomination of officers had not been completed.

PREPARES TO DEVELOP
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Young Women's Christian Association Makes Changes and Creates New Department.

The large development of the work of physical education of the Young Women's Christian Association, it was announced last night, has made necessary a number of changes in the organization. A new department of physical education has been created, with Mrs. John Denby Hird, chairman.
The physical education committee has been organized with the educational department.

Largely through Mrs. Hird's leadership, the efforts of the committee, and Miss Helen Wyman, physical director, it is announced, remarkable development has been achieved.

Improved Conditions Noted.

Four years ago there were ninety in the 45th classes. Today the number is 45—fourteen classes in gymnastics and athletics each week at Ingram Memorial Church. Now the association has its own quarters on G street, where there are fourteen classes under instruction, four with supervision each week, and private lessons averaging four hours a week. New classes are being organized constantly under the direction of Miss Madeline Mead. The swimming class is "The winter to learn, the spring to practice and the summer to enjoy."

The pool will be kept open the year around, and the warm days approximately will be glad, it is believed, to go in for a refreshing plunge. Shower baths are installed both at the pool and at the main building, 14th and G streets.

For years ago, it is stated, ten tennis courts was available to members.
Last year two more were added and these departments of the organization to provide an opportunity for the large number of members to enjoy this sport.

Instruction Soon to Begin.

Some have been keeping up their practice this winter in the gym, and instruction will be begun next month.
They are represented in the Women's Tennis League, and in April a tournament will be held to form a team to enter the league May 1.

Basket ball is a new feature, and the team meets for practice three times a week in the gym of the Church of the Epiphany and for match games with other teams of the city, which are scheduled once a week.

It is announced that Vacation Lodge at Cherrydale, Va., will be open for the first of a large number of house parties this summer. The lodge is a beautiful place, and the committee has been selected by the Friendship Club girls, sororities and Sunday school classes, clubs and numerous other organizations of the city for week-end gatherings.
